

+ FLOAT ON

Evoking the ambience of a relaxing getaway resort, interior designer Mark Cutler hung sheer, wispy linen drapes from concealed drapery rods and an out-of-frame soffit. The whimsical space features two different hues of drapery, which creates the illusion of movement. Simple elements and a neutral color palette add timeless elegance.