

JOHN LIPONI PHOTOGRAPHY WEDDING PACKAGES

From hours before the bride walks down the aisle until she says good-bye to her guests at the end of the day, I am there for her. My forte is waiting for actions, reaction, and fleeting moments, which are the moments usually missed by those involved in the energy of the wedding day. I am a natural storyteller and I document each of my weddings as a complete story, from start to finish, as it happens. All of my wedding packages include the right amount of shooting time on your wedding day to allow for my style of photography. Each couple and each wedding is unique and personal, and I prefer to be focused solely on documenting those special moments on your wedding day. Thank you for allowing me to capture your special day! -- John Liponi
