

Our 2013 Fort Lauderdale Orchid Show, "Orchid Affair" is coming for three days in January!

Click here to buy show or preview party tickets.

Join us at the War Memorial Auditorium from 10 to 6 on Friday, Saturday, or Sunday, Jan. 18 – 19 – 20.

- Growers from all around the world with orchids for sale
- Beautiful displays that are judged and awarded
- Plant raffles for visitors
- Individual plants judged by American Orchid Society judges and awarded
- Orchid supplies, jewelry, and accessories are available
- Art show featuring orchids by local school children
- Snack bar

For a special treat, join us at our preview party on Thursday evening, January 17. Enjoy an elegant dinner with wine and champagne amidst the freshest and most beautiful orchids. Vendors are present too so you can get first dibs on their finest and rarest plants.

Visit our Show Page for all the details!

Welcome to the Fort Lauderdale Orchid Society! If you recently discovered the Fort Lauderdale Orchid Society, please come to a meeting as our guest and then consider joining. We are a fun group that enjoy:

- meeting to learn from a presentation, munch on snacks, look at members' plants, and participate in a raffle
- checking out books from our library
- traveling together to visit orchid nurseries or other members' homes on our famous rambles
- hosting our annual Fort Lauderdale Orchid Show
- reading our newsletter
- parties!

You'll find enjoyment and useful information whether you are brand new to growing orchids or have many years of experience. Come as a guest – no obligation – and see how you like it! The Internet is awash in data but there's nothing like finding out what works and what doesn't work from a neighbor or friend.

Newsletter Archives

The FLOS Newsletters are all online! You can find the archived ones from 2008 on the Newsletter Archives page.