

Green Hill

---

GREEN HILL ART GALLERY'S

1st ANNUAL NORTH CAROLINA COMPETITION

received, juried, exhibited

at the

WEATHERSPOON GALLERY

July 11 - August 3, 1975

The First Annual North Carolina Competition of Green Hill Art Gallery, Inc. was made possible by a grant from the North Carolina Arts Council with the aid of the National Endowment for the Arts, the United Arts Council of Greensboro, and the Weatherspoon Gallery facilities.

358 artists submitted 674 entries to the competition, representing a cross section of professional and amateur artists all over North Carolina. A total of 98 works by 76 artists were selected by Claude Howell and Charles Wyrick for exhibition in the Weatherspoon Gallery. This exhibit is the essence of those entries submitted, showing an unusual versatility and competence.

It is to be hoped that the Second Annual North Carolina Competition will attract an even greater number of North Carolina's professional artists affording the viewer an even richer, more exciting visual encounter in 1976.

I would like to thank Claude Howell and "Pete" Wyrick for the concern and intensity exercised during the two days of jurying and selecting a quality exhibit.

This First Competition was an achievement of many dedicated people who gave of their time and energy. I am grateful to all those who helped with receiving, jurying, packing, bus pick-ups, return of works, and