About Sherry and Her Work

In my own words

I'm Sherry Edith Dansby, a photographer based in Westminster, California. Through Dansby Photography & Multimedia, I work on location throughout Orange County and Los Angeles, creating headshots, portraits, and event photographs and helping families preserve photographs through restoration and print-to-digital transfers. Photography has been part of my family's story since 1955. I want people to feel comfortable asking questions and telling me what they need, especially when being in front of a camera feels difficult. My experience with epilepsy, identity, faith, and family caregiving shapes the patience I bring to that work. I also host The Flash of Life, where I share conversations about photography and the experiences that affect how we see ourselves and one another.

Photography services

Service	Focus
Headshots	Professional, acting, dating, and personal branding photographs.
Lifestyle and fine art portraits	Individual and family portraits created on location.
Boudoir and pin up	Personal portrait sessions with planning and clear direction.
Events	Reunions, red carpets, nonprofit gatherings, and other events.
Print to digital transfers	Digital copies of printed photographs and family memories.

How I approach a session

I want you to feel comfortable telling me what you need. We can talk through the purpose of the photographs, the location, and any practical concerns before the session. I explain what we are doing and give direction so you do not have to arrive knowing how to pose.
